Sanford Launches New City Website

As we meet the needs of the 21st century, the City of Sanford is pleased to unveil its fresh, vibrant and updated website that is more user-friendly. The updated website will help to serve residents and visitors more effectively and more efficiently.

The website has quick links buttons to Things to See and Do, Economic Development, Visitor Information, Service Requests, Meetings and Agendas, just to name a few.

Contact information for all city departments and the latest news are also just a click away. Please take the time to visit the new City of Sanford website at www.sanfordfl.gov.
