Band Together for Peace against Gun Violence

On Tuesday, February 5th Sanford's District 2 City Commissioner Dr. Velma Williams, the Sanford Police Department, together with the NAACP and the Goldsboro Historical Association are sponsoring an event "Band Together for Peace against Gun Violence" from 2pm until 6pm at the Goldsboro Welcome Center, 1216 Historic Goldsboro Blvd. in Sanford. This is to commemorate the birthday of Trayvon Martin who was killed last February 26, 2012. Speakers will include Sanford Mayor Triplett, Commissioner Williams, City Manager Norton Bonaparte, Attorneys Natalie Jackson and Ben Crump, Melvin Philpot and Pastor Valarie Houston.

Everyone is invited. Free hot dogs, drinks, chips and peace wrist-bands will be handed-out. Food will be served until 5:30 PM.
