

NEWS FROM CITY HALL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, OCTOBER 7, 2013

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: LISA MOSCA, PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER
407.688-5019 • LISA.MOSCA@SANFORDFL.GOV

---

Celebrate Sanford October 10-13, 2013

The City of Sanford invites you to attend Celebrate Sanford taking place this weekend Oct. 10-13. Sanford has so much to be proud of and so much to offer the Central Florida region. There's something for everyone during the Celebrate Sanford weekend.

Kick the weekend off with a visit to Thursday, October 10th's Alive After 5 in Downtown Sanford. On Friday, October 11, stop by the Historic Goldsboro community for a BBQ cook-off, gospel jubilee, food, crafts, motorcycle show and reenactments of Historic Goldsboro in 1891. On Friday night catch a performance of The Mystery of Edwin Drood, a wildly warm-hearted theatrical experience at the Wayne Densch Performing Arts Center in Downtown Sanford.

On Saturday, October 12, enjoy shopping at the Downtown Sidewalk Sale-a-bration, pick-up some fresh fruits and veggies at the Farmer's Market in Magnolia Square. Make some time for the scheduled fishing and golf tournaments too. "Set Sail" in Sanford on Lake Monroe, listen to great live music all day in FT. Mellon Park while strolling the vendor and craft's booths. Bring the kids and enjoy a family day at the park and for the car and motorcycle enthusiast, stop by the antique car and motorcycle displays.

Saturday afternoon, there'll also be an awesome air show that you won't want to miss and the legendary band, The Outlaws, will perform live Saturday night in FT. Mellon Park.

There are many events for the entire family throughout this 4 day celebration. So much to do! So much to see! For a complete listing of events visit www.celebratesanford.com

###